

Special Activities for New Albany Residents

Highlight 2010 BIA Parade of Homes

Be inspired with the latest trends in design, landscaping and homebuilding by touring eight spectacular custom-built homes at the 2010 BIA Parade of Homes in New Albany's Ackerly Park. The Parade will occur July 24 - August 8. Parade hours will be Monday - Thursday, Noon - 9 pm; Friday and Saturday, 10 am - 9 pm; and Sunday, 10 am - 6 pm.

New this year for parents is Kid Village, a child area open daily from 12 pm - 6 pm and complete with an arts area, mobile game trailer (Xbox, Wii, and Play Station enabled), movie tent and special toddler play area. Kid Village is open to children ages 2 - 16 and is $10 for an unlimited stay (receive $2 off Kid Village admission with a copy of this article). Parade admission is still free for any child aged 12 and under with a paid accompanying adult.

Parade discounts ($2 off entry) will occur on August 5 as part of a special day of activities. The New Albany Walking Club will host a 2+ mile fun walk around New Albany at 6:30 pm on this night, with free t-shirts to the first 100 participants to register for walk. Registration will occur at the BIA Parade site beginning at 4:30 pm. Pelotonia will also host a 5-mile family bike ride at 7 pm on August 5, and New Albany Symphony performers will appear at the Parade from 7:30 - 8:30 pm.

More information about the 2010 BIA Parade of Homes, including the custom homes and builders that are part of the Parade line-up, can be accessed www.biaparade.com.